Rules – Official rules questions at Sign-In/Questions Table

Basic Items listed below:

Traditional Red Chili is any kind of meat/combination of meats cooked with red chili peppers/powders, various spices and other ingredients. Any non-meat fillers are not allowed, including beans. Preference is not given to either cut meat or ground meat.

Note: The above category winners are all chosen by judges. Garnishes must not be used for any category. Rule of thumb- if an ingredient found on the top layer of an entry bowl cannot also be found mixed throughout the entire bowl, it is a garnish and is not permitted. If a bowl is delivered for judging with a garnish, the bowl will be disqualified
